SUPPLEMENTAL AMENDMENT

Dear Sir:

On 4 May 2005, applicant filed what it believes was a complete response to an office action dated February 8, 2005. On June 30, 2005, Examiner Fetsuga mailed a communication arguing that applicant's response was not fully responsive. It appears the communication leaves applicant only the option of supplementing the response and paying an extension fee. However, applicant believes that the proper response as indicated in the MPEP would have been to hold the prior response non-responsive and have offered a one-month period to complete the response. Thus, while applicant now submits this supplemental response, and applicant will petition for a three-month extension of time, applicant does not believe any petition is due, and applicant would ask the United States Patent and Trademark Office to waive the requirement of any extension fee.
